THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

An Especially Strong Company to Appear Wednesday and Thursday Nights at Popular Prices.

Manager Hooper has arranged a treat for the theatre-going people of Roanoke who will on to-morrow and Thursday nights be able to witness first class performances at the Academy of Music for the extremely low prices of 25, 35 and 50 cents. The Louise Aydele Company will hold the boards both nights.
On Wednesday night they will produce McKee Rankin's romantic drama, "The Runaway Wife," and on Thursday night "A Trip to a Circus." For Wednesday night Manager Hooper has prepared a special ticket for ladies, the price of which is 25 cents when accompanied by a gentleman holding a fifty cent ticket.
Miss Aydele is an actress of great versatility and her beauty makes her a strong aspirant for the high place made vacant by the retirement of Mary Anderson. "The Runaway Wife" and "A Trip to a Circus" both abound in clever and interesting situations and Miss Aydele's supporting company is one of the strongest on the road, including as it does some star specialty people. In presenting this company to the Roanoke public at popular prices Manager Hooper feels assured that they will attract the patronage they so justly deserve.

"Julius Caesar" Saturday Night.

The audience which assembled at the Academy of Music to see Mr. Charles Hanford and a well-balanced company present "Julius Caesar," was by no means as large as the merits of the performance deserved, but what was lacking in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. This is Mr. Hanford's first appearance in Norfolk as a star, and judging by his reception, he will soon be a favorite here. His impersonation of the character of Marc Antony differs from that of any other actor ever seen at this house, in that it was better. The Forum scene, and the scene where he addresses the rabble as a peroration over Caesar's body are unsurpassed. The Cassius of Mr. E. R. Spencer was also a skillful piece of acting, and, though young in years, his work will take rank with a number of favorites in this character. The supporting company is good.
Special attention was paid to the scene portion of the performance, and it was unusually good.—Norfolk, Va., Landmark, October 18.

MORE ARMENIANS MURDERED.

The Massacres Accompanied With Terrible Excesses.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—Another terrible massacre of Armenians, accompanied by the outraging of women, is reported to have occurred quite recently in the Baiburt district between Erzeroum and Trebizond. According to news received here a mob of about 500 Mus-sulemans and the Lazas, the great majority of whom were armed with Martini-Henry rifles, made an attack upon the Armenians inhabiting several villages of that vicinity and set fire to their houses and schools.

As the Armenians fled in terror from their dwellings, they were shot down as they ran and a number of men and women captured by the rioters, it is added, were fastened to stakes and burned alive. The Armenian women who fell into the hands of mob, it is also asserted, were outraged and brutally mutilated.

TROUBLES IN TURKEY.

Recent Outrages There Said to Have Been Provoked by Armenians.

LONDON, Oct. 28.—A telegram to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Constantinople says that the outbreak at Baiburt was provoked by the Armenians. At the Turkish embassy here it is believed that all the recent disturbances in Armenia are the direct result of an organized conspiracy covering various parts of the country, and which was foretold in the dispatches of the Associated Press some months ago.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 28.—It is officially declared here that the Armenians provoked the Baiburt disturbance by the firing upon Mussulemans and that many persons were killed and wounded on both sides before the gendarmeries suppressed the rioting.

It is also officially stated that the Armenians unwarrantably attacked the Mussulemans at Marash and Zeitoun.
Another dispatch received here to-day asserts that Major Bekir, of the notorious Hamidieh cavalry, was burned alive on October 4 in a church at Diadin.

HARD ON FITZSIMMONS.

A Warrant Issued for His Arrest on Entering Arkansas.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 28.—Matters pugilistically took a sensational turn to-day when Attorney-General Kins-worthy filed information in the second division of the Pulaski county court asking for a warrant for the arrest of Robert Fitzsimmons and Martin Julian.
It develops that the governor has had a detective or confidential agent at Hot Springs all the time and has been kept thoroughly posted on every move made by the promoters of the fight. Last night the detective advised the governor that arrangements had been completed to bring the fight off.

"I have never wavered in my determination to stop that fight," said the governor to a reporter. "Corbett and Fitzsimmons will never meet in Arkansas. Just as soon as Fitzsimmons enters he will be arrested and brought before Judge Martin in this city."

Frank Flynn, a well-known sporting man, of Hot Springs, who is in the city to-day, gives out the information that the fight will certainly occur at Hot Springs on October 31, at Whittington Park.

LATEST FROM CUBA.

The Insurgent Leader, Garcia, Surrenders.
Strength of the Rebels.

HAVANA, Oct. 28.—The insurgent leader, Francisco Garcia, has surrendered to the government at Manzanillo. He was interviewed by a war correspondent after his surrender and said that he had been with Maximo Gomez from the time of the battle of Boca de Dos Rios last May until September 24, when he returned to the province of Santiago de Cuba. He reports that there is no enthusiasm in the insurgent ranks.

The soldiers in the insurgent ranks, he alleges, hate Gomez, but would not desert the ranks out of respect for the second in command, Aljondro Rodriguez. In the province of Puerto Principe, he says, they now number scarcely 1,500 armed. In Santiago de Cuba province there are 4,000 insurgents who are better supplied with ammunition. The insurgents charge 30 cents per bag for all the sugar made.

General Harrison Will Speak.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 28.—General Benjamin Harrison has broken a long list of declinations to address public assemblages and will appear on the platform next Thursday night in this city with Gen. John B. Gordon, of Confederate fame. General Harrison will introduce the ex-Confederate and it is expected that he will contribute some interesting remarks on the results of the war and the relations of the two sections.
